Tired of the same old apps everyone uses? Want to find something new, different, useful and fun? We've collected 8 of our unique apps selects for you to try on your Android phone. For our list of unique Android apps, we have considered the following criteria when choosing: The app should be available in Google Play with 3.5 or more (no third-party websites of apps or downloads allowed). No games. Smart use of ads (ads are a reality with free apps, but they don't have to be completely disruptive). Memory Assistant Screenshot. The memory assistant is a super simple and easy-to-use to-do app. To-do lists keep everything you need to remember in one convenient place, but the special thing about this app is that it presents you with a reminder of your to-do list every time you turn on or unlock your phone. Great for people who get busy and forget things like eating lunch (guilty!) or for people who just have a hard time remembering everything they need to do in a day. What's the prognosis?!. Tons of weather forecast apps out so you may wonder what makes this one special? Unlike other descriptive or funny weather apps, what's the forecast?! has over 6,000 different weather descriptions for all different kinds of conditions without seeing the same old talk over and over again. This also includes the ability to choose the level of profanity the user wants - from non-profanity, to full profanity, and some to a little mild profanity. Note: 17 on this app because of profanity options. The Stills movement. Google Research's Motion Stills app lets you record short videos and combine them into longer creations to share with friends and family as videos or cyclical GIFs. The app also includes stabilizing and rendering functions to avoid this unintended effect of a shaky camera. Street hunting. Tired of the same old boring neighborhood walks? Or maybe you just moved in and would like to explore your new area on foot? Street hunting takes you on a mysterious walk. You enter the distance you would like to walk and the app will choose a unique place for you to hunt. The app gives you signals when you are getting closer or further away from your destination. When you successfully find a mystery place and complete the hunt, the app tracks your success so you can compete with friends and other street hunters using the app. UVLens. This app is the new best friend of your skin. UVLens not only shows you the UV forecast for your area, as well as the best times to be outside or avoid the sun and stay, but also offers a skin assessment tool that tracks the risk of burns in real time while you are outdoors. Convenient! The cream reminder tells you when it's time to reapply. UVLens will help you enjoy safely outdoors, minimizing the risk of sun damage and sunburn. Uplix - Roulette mode. Netflix users will love Uplix. Uplix sends you real-time updates when new movies, shows and documentaries are added to the Netflix catalog. Netflix. The app will also help you navigate Netflix's huge list of offerings with additional search options and supports a list of soon expired Netflix offerings so you can watch them before they're gone. Don't know what to watch? Roulette mode uses selected filters and categories to find something new and interesting for you to watch. Tab. Love dining with friends, but hate the math of the casual work-sharing bill at the end of a meal? Tab solves this problem! Link the receipt, click to select items you've ordered, and Tab calculates the total amount - including your tax portion and tip. When your friends use Tab as well, everyone can choose their ordered items and sync with everyone at the table. If it's going to be someone's birthday, you can even have your part tab split equally between the rest of the eateries. Talk to team members, keep track of their schedules and attendance, and even update the latest sports news. Team App does control your members piece of cakeHandling Any team can be a handful for managers. You have to keep an eye on their attendance or when a particular player can make it into the game. Managers also need to communicate with everyone to make sure everyone is updated about what is happening to the team. Team App helps you deal with these dilemmas by providing you with useful features such as news and event alerts. Both features send notifications of any important information to all members. Administrators can also create chat rooms or forums where your squad can discuss specific topics. You can import members in bulk along with their email addresses. The platform will also help you keep track of members who may not be available for the game, which will help you find an appropriate temporary replacement. You can also mark each player's attendance at training or training. The Team App file-sharing feature allows you to share important documents with your team by downloading the PDF format. Participants can access the file through the app and download it via the web platform or on their phones. You can also link the video to your team's page. This allows your team to get a training video or where their family can find the latest footage of the game members. The storeAnother team's useful App Team feature is a specialty store for your squad. Here you can sell equipment or uniforms for your team. Families, friends or team fans can also buy tickets as well as merchandise from your team store. One question you may not like is a bare bones service when you compare it to other online stores. But, this feature is well connected with your team's fundraising efforts. Where can you run this program? Phones or tablets with Android 5.0 or better can run Team App. You can also get an Apple version that is compatible with iOS 11.0 or The Team app is also available on desktop computers through the website app. Is there a better alternative? Similar team management apps, such as Teamer, can be found in the Play store. Play. The app lets you notify all members of your team and manages team event records with ease. Teamer also allows you to share photos and videos on the page. The command app hits the mark with its useful features. The platform makes it easy to manage your squad, keep them informed, share important files, and more. The only downside you can experience with the app is the lack of a secondary security measure. Otherwise, managers can make full use of the Team App for their squad. Should you download it? Yes. Team App provides you with a reliable squad management platform. If you want to start drawing on an Android device, you can't go wrong with any of the free apps below. Each comes with unique tools and features to help you bring your visual ideas to life. While these apps are free, they all offer a basic level of quality- high resolution and smooth lines, making them ideal for all but the most professional illustration projects. Cool sketch of a girl. Lebra von Schoonen/Getty Images Autodesk is a familiar name to any graphic artist. SketchBook seems to be a really free app: the permissions are not onerous, and it doesn't seem to install any malware outside of the usual anonymous usage data that is clearly marked. When you first launch the app, you'll be presented with a series of training screens explaining each icon how to pan and zoom in, and how you want to zoom in on your brush and opacity. It's a good idea not to have as much time to really look at them, since they're not always intuitive and sometimes confusing (the basic style of drawing an icon is the same as keeping the transparency icon in the layers falling down). The free version of the app has many features and options disabled, but still has good basic functionality. Water Color Pencil Lite is a favorite among digital artists, because the texture of the pencil is quite natural and grainy. This may seem like a simple matter, but achieving a realistic pencil texture should be difficult, since few drawing apps seem to manage it. The app is convenient and well worth checking out. Infinite Painter by Sean Brakefield is a powerful drawing app resembling ArtRage, with a fairly intuitive interface, along with an easily accessible color palette and brush palette, rework and cancellation features, and a switchable menu that includes layer support and reference image pinning. Intuitive finger gestures enlarge and rotate the image. The resolution is high, with an excellent selection of brushes that includes traditional handle and brush, as well as some good texture. Note: The free version of the app is a trial that lasts for seven days. After that, layers and other premium features disappear. Adobe Illustrator Draw is free with no external ads, although it requires extensive permissions, including your contacts. The app serves as a promo for Adobe's cloud services where you are buy additional tools. You can export to Adobe Illustrator on your computer and have the advantage of having multiple brush and pen tools, layers, and undo/redo buttons. Kaleidoscope Doodle Pad is a fun kaleidoscope program-every sign you make mirrored. Click on the kaleidoscope to select different mirror styles. Each press version of a blank canvas passes through a different color background; Click on the brush to choose the style of paint: neon glow, flat paint, chalk, among others. This app is a toy, not a program for serious drawing-sort of hand-held sigraph, but a lot of fun. There's some pressure sensitivity, although it's not very accurate as well as a fun playback feature. The app is cute and addictive, and it doesn't require special permissions. Permissions. free baby heartbeat monitor app for android
